An Ideal Fourth

An ideal Fourth was realized last Friday by the Berea Baptist Sunday School, the occasion being the Annual Picnic. Nearly 300 people, men, women and children in wagons, carriages and automobiles went to Slate Lick Springs where the entire day was spent to the pleasure of all. Together they played, laughed, talked and ate. It was a day when all were young again. The way the members of the Church co-operated in making the picnic a success is highly commendable.

Berea Baptist Sunday School is large and still growing. Congratulations to Superintendent Woolf and teachers for the enthusiastic and splendid work they are doing. If more Fourth's were celebrated this way we would have better Sunday Schools and saner Fourth's.

Go to North Carolina

Mr. F. O. Bowman and sister, Maude, left Thursday for Minneapolis, N. C. where Mr. Bowman will be principal of the Minneapolis Graded School. Miss Maude will teach in the school.

Booked Again

Rev. Jones the noted Sunday worker for the Kentucky Conference, who spoke at the District Conference held in Berea last week, is booked for a return date sometime in August.

Meeting Closes

The very interesting revival meeting at the Silver Creek Baptist Church closed Wednesday night. The meeting was conducted by the Rev. Chas. Brookshire, of Owensboro.

J. W. Coyle Operated On

Mr. J. W. Coyle who underwent an operation at Gibson Infirmary last Monday is improving nicely.

School Opens

The Berea Public School began

Methodist Preaching

Rev. Geo. W. Everett preached at the Methodist Church Sunday morning, and will continue to do so during the absence of the pastor, Rev. O. C. Hass.

Oscar Clark Dead

Oscar Clark, of Berea, died of typhoid fever at Harlan, Sunday morning, remains were brought to Berea for burial, Monday.

Mrs. Moberley Dead

Mrs. Bettie S. Moberly, wife of C. F. Moberly, deceased, was on the morning of July 4, found in her bed unconscious. She never revived. She died July 5th and was buried in our cemetery July 6, 1913.

She was the only daughter of Solomon and Maria Smith. She was the sister of Hon. W. B. Smith, now the only surviving member of the family.

One by one they have crossed the river and she has gone to meet them.

Mrs. Moberly was an unassuming, gentle, kind-hearted woman, a devoted wife and loving mother. She cared for her friends and sympathized with those in trouble and she was always ready to lend a helping hand.

She has left us, but she leaves behind her a good name, a rich legacy to her four children, W. S. and Thos. Moberly, Mrs. George Corzeli and Mrs. Rosa May Toy and her little grand-daughter, Betsy S. Toy. Her whole life will be to them a pleasant memory. While with us she acted well her part and we will not forget her.

If her death is the final end, then she is at rest, but if it is the open door, which we believe it is, to a brighter and better world, then she is with those who will love and care for her, and now we bid her a long farewell.

(This beautiful tribute to Mrs. Moberly was written by one who knew and loved her well.)

Her gentle, sweet life has left its indelible impress on those who came in contact with her.

The Madisonian joins in the tenderest sympathy to the bereaved family.)

An Expert's Opinion

James A. McKee, Senior member of McKee Brothers, celebrated breeders of pure bred Duroc Jersey hogs, Versailles Ky., will deliver a lecture before the Farmer's Union in the Court House at 1:30 P. M. Saturday July 12 on Breeding and feeding hogs.

Mr. McKee has the distinction of owning the highest priced hogs in the world; Peerless Defender for which McKee Brothers gave $5,000 last year. For many years Mr. McKee has handled hogs in large numbers and is without doubt the best authority in Kentucky on this subject.

This talk will be open to the public and you will miss an opportunity to learn something about the "Mortgage Lifter" unless you attend this lecture. The Farmer's Union extends a cordial invitation to every farmer in Madison county to be present.

Respectfully,

Green Clay.

Pres. M. C. F. U.

Home Again

Capt. Dykes has recovered sufficiently to be taken to his home. He takes this method of informing his friends how much he appreciates their kind sympathy and support. He hopes to be able to get out in a short time with renewed energy and strength to prosecute his campaign for the office of Chief of Police. In this, his time of trial, he values at its full worth any thing that his friends can do for him. He will be extremely grateful to those who can and who will speak a good word in his aid. adv.
